As a REALTOR® member or MLS Participant of the Shasta Association of REALTORS®, Membership Orientation is a mandatory requirement of your membership. One excused absence is allowed. Failure to attend will result in your membership being dropped. However, if you are currently a member to another association and have attended their orientation, you may request from that association a Letter in Good Standing with the date of the orientation that you attended.

You will be notified via e-mail as to the date of the next scheduled Orientation.

I, _____, certify that I have read and agree to the above information and in applying for membership; I understand that I am required to attend the Orientation.
